

Can you help me?

These amazing pictures have been created by using different things to make up a complete picture. The bird in the picture is a bird of prey called a kite - this picture has been made up of lots of different photographs. The cat has been made up of lots of different sized / shaped pebbles.

Can you think of any ways you can make a big picture of an otter using lots of smaller things?

